Pre-Start Check List

Amended on April 11th, 2013 by the Japan Association of Athletics Federations Medical Committee

To ensure a safe run, please check prior to starting if you are healthy enough to run on the day of the race. If any of the following (1-8) are applicable to you, please either retire from the race or ensure you run carefully.

Check Points:	CHECK
① Having a fever or feeling feverish.
② A feeling of residual tiredness.
③ Not feeling well-rested or having insufficient sleep the previous night.
④ Having not had enough food and water prior to starting the race.
⑤ Showing signs of a cold (slight fever, headache, sore throat, cough, runny nose).
⑥ Feeling discomfort or pain in the chest or back areas, and feeling palpitations or breathlessness.
⑦ Lower back pain, diarrhea or nausea.
⑧ Having no plan for how to finish the race.

- Please check your physical condition on the day of the event. If you feel unwell, please withdraw from participation.
- Please retire from the race immediately if at any point you do not feel well. If you choose to withdraw, please be sure to notify the staff of your condition.
- Organizers recommend the following people undergo cardiac screening by a stress electrocardiogram prior to the race:
 - Those with abnormal electrocardiogram results in medical examinations.
 - Those who have previously been diagnosed with cardiac irregularities.

A stress electrocardiogram is a test to detect cardiac abnormalities that are difficult to detect under normal conditions. This is done by conducting an electrocardiogram after exercising and placing stress on the heart.

- Regardless of the weather, be sure to drink plenty of fluids beforehand to prevent dehydration.
- We recommend bringing your health insurance card on the day of the race.
- Doctors and nurses will be on duty at medical stations to provide first aid. Come to an aid station if you don't feel well.
- Sprinting for the last leg of the race places stress on the body and is dangerous. Take your time and finish the race in comfort with a smile.

Nara Marathon 2025 Q&A

Q1 Is it possible to have someone else check in for me?

A A. In principle, we ask you to check in yourselves, but it is possible to have someone else do it on your behalf. Please send your Check-in QR code issued according to the email "Guide for Athlete Bib Exchange Voucher" to your representative, and have them present it at the runner's check-in. It is also possible to bring multiple codes at once. When issuing an exchange voucher, be sure to register someone who can be contacted on the day of the race as an emergency contact.

Note: However, substitutes are not allowed to run. The emergency contact is defined as a person contactable by telephone in case of an emergency incident, such as sickness or injury that may occur during the race.

Q2 I don't know how to issue the race bib exchange voucher or am unable to issue it.

A A. During the period before the event, please contact the Entry Center. On Saturday, the 13th, please present the email screen for the "Guide for Athlete Bib Exchange Voucher" to the help desk. For those who do not have a smartphone, tablet, or computer, we will provide a printed version at site for a handling fee of 200 yen.

Q3 Do you issue finisher's certificates on race day?

A Yes, Mini Nara Marathon finishers will receive a finisher's certificate (No time stated) on the race day.

Q4 What size is the luggage bag to be checked in?

A It is a 45-liter clear plastic bag, with one distributed to each participant. Valuables, precision instruments, plants and animals, breakables, etc. cannot be checked in.

Q5 I have chosen to withdraw from the race. Can I receive the entry prize at least?

A A. The entry prize is available for pick-up on the day of the runner's check-in when you show Check-in QR Code of the Guide for Athlete Bibs Pick-up Voucher. It is possible to have someone pick it up for you.
